CAUSE

Michale D. McMillian (Michael D. McMillian in some paperwork) was sentenced on July 9, 2007, by the Honorable Todd J. Campbell, Chief U.S. District Judge for the Middle District of Tennessee to 48 months incarceration and three years of supervised release following a conviction for Felon in Possession of Firearm. McMillian is due to be released from the Bureau of Prisons in February 2010.

In September 2009, the U.S. Probation Office for Northern New York received correspondence from the Bureau of Prisons because McMillian submitted a request to relocate to this area, upon his release from prison. The plan was investigated and approved. Jurisdiction was transferred to the Northern District of New York and assigned to your Honor on October 30, 2009.

To prepare this case for supervision, we proposed a modification to add several conditions: four months in a Residential Re-Entry Center (to give McMillian time to become familiar with the community); no use of alcohol and the search condition. With the assistance of prison officials, the offender agreed to the modification and has signed Probation Form 49: Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions.

If the Court concurs with these modification, Probation Form 12b will need to be signed and filed with the Clerk's Office.

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my conditions of Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By 'assistance of counsel,' I understand that I have a right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the Court to appoint counsel to represent me at such hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.
